

CONTENTS

	PAGE
EDITORIAL COMMENT: ARE THERE TOO MANY NEGRO COLLEGES?	159
THE BEGINNINGS OF THE NEGRO COLLEGE	167
D. O. W. HOLMES
NEGRO-WHITE ADJUSTMENT IN AMERICA	193
PAUL E. BAKER
THE INTELLIGENCE OF COLORED ELEMENTARY PUPILS IN WASHINGTON, D.C.	205
HOWARD H. LONG
THE NEGRO AS A SUBJECT OF UNIVERSITY RESEARCH IN 1933	223
ELLIS O. KNOX
ADMINISTRATIVE CONTROL OF PUBLIC NEGRO COLLEGES	245
FELTON G. CLARK
NEW EDUCATION IN THE PHILIPPINES	257
JOHN H. MANNING BUTLER
 CURRENT LITERATURE:
REVIEWS: The Problem of Voluntary Race-Segregation; The Life of a Young Negro College Woman; Nature vs. Nurture—A Skirmish; Along this Way; A Negro's Biography of Lincoln	269
ABSTRACTS: The Vai Script; Racial Stereotypes of 100 College Students; Racial Differences in the Mental Diseases; Quelques Observations sur La Langue Mandingue; Comparisons of White and Indian Children; Mental, Physical, and Musical Abilities of Native Races in Alaska; Filipino Attitudes toward America; Racial Attitudes of White College Students; Community of Ideas of Negroes; Japanese Work Curves; Parental Occupations and Child- ren's Intelligence Scores	281
BIBLIOGRAPHY	292
 CURRENT EVENTS OF IMPORTANCE IN NEGRO EDUCATION:
A Report on the Rating of Negro Colleges and High Schools; The Centenary of British Emancipation and of the Death of William Wilber- force; The 25th Anniversary of the N.A.A.C.P.; National Negro Health Week; The Ninth Annual Negro History Week; The Program of Curriculum Revision in Virginia; A Conference on Colleges for Negro Youth; A National Conference on Fundamental Problems of Negro Education	301

(Articles in the JOURNAL are listed in the Education Index)