

TABLE OF CONTENTS

CHAPTER	PAGE
EDITORIAL NOTE: THE PURPOSE AND SCOPE OF THE SEVENTH YEAR-BOOK	241
Part I. Past Relations of the Federal Government to Education
I. THE EVOLUTION OF THE PRESENT RELATIONS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO EDUCATION IN THE UNITED STATES	244
JOHN DALE RUSSELL, Professor of Education, The University of Chicago
II. THE FEDERAL RELATIONS TO EDUCATION IN OUTLYING PARTS	256
KATHERINE M. COOK, Chief, Division of Special Problems, U. S. Office of Education
III. THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND THE EDUCATION OF INDIANS AND ESKIMOS	267
WILLARD W. BEATTY, Director of Education, Office of Indian Affairs, U. S. Department of the Interior
IV. THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE PRESENT RELATIONSHIP OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO NEGRO EDUCATION	273
DAVID A. LANE, JR., Dean, Louisville Municipal College for Negroes
Part II. Participation of Negro Separate Schools in Federal Education Grants
SECTION A— Permanent Funds
V. THE PARTICIPATION OF NEGRO LAND-GRANT COLLEGES IN PERMANENT FEDERAL EDUCATION FUNDS	282
JOHN W. DAVIS, President, West Virginia State College
VI. THE FEDERALLY-AIDED PROGRAM OF VOCATIONAL TEACHER-TRAINING IN NEGRO SCHOOLS	292
CHARLES W. FLORENCE, Graduate Student, Harvard University
VII. THE FEDERAL PROGRAM OF VOCATIONAL EDUCATION IN NEGRO SCHOOLS OF LESS THAN COLLEGE GRADE	303
CHAS. H. THOMPSON, Professor of Education, Howard University
VIII. THE PARTICIPATION OF NEGROES IN THE FEDERALLY-AIDED PROGRAM OF CIVILIAN VOCATIONAL REHABILITATION	319
DOXEY A. WILKERSON, Associate Professor of Education, Howard University; and LEMUEL A. PENN, Graduate Student, Howard University
IX. THE PARTICIPATION OF NEGROES IN THE FEDERALLY-AIDED PROGRAM OF AGRICULTURAL AND HOME ECONOMICS EXTENSION	331
DOXEY A. WILKERSON, Associate Professor of Education, Howard University
SECTION B— Emergency Grants
X. THE PARTICIPATION OF NEGROES IN PRE-SCHOOL AND ADULT EDUCATION PROGRAMS	345
JAMES A. ATKINS, Specialist in Negro Education, Works Progress Administration
XI. THE PARTICIPATION OF NEGROES IN THE NATIONAL YOUTH ADMINISTRATION PROGRAM	357
WALTER G. DANIEL, Associate Professor of Education, and Librarian, Howard University; and CARROLL L. MILLER, Instructor in Education, Howard University
XII. THE PWA SCHOOL BUILDING-AID PROGRAM AND SEPARATE NEGRO SCHOOLS	366
ROBERT C. WEAVER, Special Assistant to the Administrator of the U. S. Housing Authority, U. S. Department of the Interior
XIII. THE CIVILIAN CONSERVATION CORPS AND THE EDUCATION OF THE NEGRO	375
HOWARD W. OXLEY, Director, CCC Camp Education, U. S. Office of Education

XIV. THE TRAINING PROGRAM OF THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY FOR NEGROES	383
J. MAX BOND, General Supervisor of Negro Training , Tennessee Valley Authority, Knoxville, Tennessee
SECTION C— Special Federal Jurisdictions
XV. THE SUPPORT AND CONTROL OF PUBLIC EDUCATION IN THE DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA	390
HOWARD H. LONG, Assistant Superintendent , Public Schools, Divisions X-XIII, Washington, D.C.
XVI. FEDERAL SUPPORT AND CONTROL OF EDUCATION IN THE TERRITORIES AND OUTLYING POSSESSIONS	400
CHARLES F. REID, Editor , Bibliographies of the American Possessions , New York City
XVII. FEDERAL SUPPORT OF SPECIAL INSTITUTIONS—COLUMBIA INSTITUTION FOR THE DEAF AND HOWARD UNIVERSITY	413
ELLIS O. KNOX, Associate Professor of Education , Howard University
XVIII. THE SPECIAL EDUCATIONAL PROGRAMS OF THE SEVERAL DEPARTMENTS OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT	423
MYRTLE R. PHILLIPS, Assistant Professor of Education , Howard University
Part III. Future Policies and Practices
XIX. NEW AND/OR ENLARGED CONCEPTIONS OF THE RELATIONSHIP OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO EDUCATION IN THE UNITED STATES: A SYMPOSIUM	431
REV. GEORGE JOHNSON, Associate Professor of Education , Catholic University of America
XX. NEW AND ENLARGED CONCEPTIONS OF THE RELATIONSHIP OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO EDUCATION	437
W. CARSON RYAN, President , Progressive Education Association , New York City
XXI. NEW AND ENLARGED CONCEPTIONS OF THE RELATIONSHIP OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO EDUCATION IN THE UNITED STATES	443
WILLARD E. GIVENS, Executive Secretary , National Education Association, Washington, D.C.
XXII. REDEFINING THE RELATIONSHIP OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO THE EDUCATION OF RACIAL AND OTHER MINORITY GROUPS	450
MARY F. GROSSMAN, Vice-President , The American Federation of Teachers, Philadelphia, Pa.
XXIII. REDEFINING THE RELATIONSHIP OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO THE EDUCATION OF RACIAL AND OTHER MINORITY GROUPS	454
HORACE MANN BOND, Professor of Education , Fisk University
XXIV. FUTURE POLICIES AND PRACTICES WHICH SHOULD GOVERN THE RELATIONSHIP OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO NEGRO SEPARATE SCHOOLS	460
CHARLES H. HOUSTON, Legal Counsel , National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, New York City
Part IV. Critical Summary of the Yearbook
XXV. THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AND NEGRO EDUCATION: A CRITICAL SUMMARY	463
ARTHUR J. KLEIN, Dean , College of Education, Ohio State University
Part V. Selected Annotated Bibliography
A SELECTED ANNOTATED BIBLIOGRAPHY ON RELATIONSHIP OF THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT TO NEGRO EDUCATION	468
MYRTLE R. PHILLIPS, and CARROLL L. MILLER	