TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial Comment: The Gold Coast Revolution................................. 97

Minority Group Attitudes of Negroes and Implications for Guidance
WALTER H. ENGLISH

Perspective for Evaluating Intergroup Relations in a Public School System ........................................................................ 108

HELEN E. AMERMAN

The Relative Learning Capacities of Negroes and Whites............. 121

HOWARD HALE LONG

A Re-examination of the Concept “Capacity for Self-Government”........ 135

LYLE W. SHANNON

Some Obstacles to Racial Integration.......................................... 145

RUTH BRYANT JEFFERSON

Current Literature:

Reviews: Robert Russa Moton of Hampton and Tuskegee (Kittrell); Segregation: The Inner Conflict in the South, Caleb, My Son, The Voice at the Back Door (Lovell); Wellsprings of Life (Elmes); The Religion of the Protestants (Rooks); Goodbye to Uncle Tom (Gadsden); Negroes on the March (Cook); Religion and Social Work, Psychotherapy and Culture Conflict (Lindsay); A Pictorial History of the Negro in America, I Wonder as I Wander (Parker); Lady Sings the Blues (Hunton); Your World and Mine (Brown) ............ 155

Bibliography: Books, Bulletins, Pamphlets and Periodical References
(Dorothy B. Porter, Dolores C. Lefall and Doris M. Hull) ................. 173

Current Trends in Negro Education and Shorter Papers:

Section A: Negro Religious and Educational Leaders in Who’s Who, 1936-1955
(Richard Bardolph) ................................................................. 182

Section B: Trends in American Higher Education with Implications for the Higher Education of Negroes (Leander L. Boykin) ........... 193

Section C: Teacher Education and Desegregation (Gladyce H. Bradley) ... 200

Section D: The Interracial Conference of the National Council of Negro Women (Lorraine A. Williams) ......................................... 204

Section E: The Cost of Board, Room and Student Fees in a Selected Group of Negro Publicly Supported Colleges (E. W. Rand) ............... 207

(Articles in the Journal are listed in the Education Index, Education Abstracts and Psychological Abstracts)