TABLE OF CONTENTS

Editorial Comment: Desegregation, 1956; Prospects, 1957 .......................... 1

A Southern Negro's View of the South .......................................................... 4

Charles S. Johnson

I Am Not What I Once Was ............................................................................. 10

Cecil Evva Larsen

Negro Women Today and Their Education ..................................................... 15

Jeanne L. Noble

Population Ratios, Racial Attitudes, and Desegregation ............................ 22

A. Stephen Stephan

Current Literature:

Reviews: Nyasaland, The Sudan, Mission on the Nile, Southern Africa: Today and Yesterday, The African Giant, Inside Africa (Logan); Training the Backward Child (Wright); The First Books of the West Indies (Parker); “Montgomery, Alabama, Money Mississippi, and Other Places” (Shaw) .......................... 30

Bibliography: Books, Bulletins, Pamphlets, and Periodical References, (Dorothy B. Porter, and Doris M. Hull) ................................................................. 41

Current Trends in Negro Education, and Shorter Papers:

Section A. Recent Attacks Upon the Supreme Court of the United States (A Statement by Members of the Bar) .......................................................... 56

Section B. Indian Students in America and Acceptance of Americans (Latheef N. Ahmed) ................................................................. 59

Section C. Negro Teachers' Attitudes Toward Desegregation of the Public Schools (Jonas O. Rosenthal) .................................................. 63

Section D: Problem Behavior in Negro Schools (Louis A. D'Amico) .......... 72

Section E: The Adjustment of 2,078 Negro Students (Leander L. Boykin) .... 75

Section F: Aspiration Levels of Negro Delinquent, Dependent, and Public School Boys (Lonnie E. Mitchell) .................................................. 80

Section G: Occupational Choice Patterns of Negro College Women (Leonard A. Ostlund) ................................................................. 86

Section H: Virginia School Desegregation Affirmed ................................. 92

(Articles in the Journal are listed in the Education Index, Education Abstracts and Psychological Abstracts.)