TABLE OF CONTENTS

EDITORIAL COMMENT: RACE AND EQUALITY IN AMERICAN EDUCATION .............................................................. 185

Section 1. Equal Educational Opportunity and Race:
Some Dimensions of the Problem

I RACE AND EQUALITY OF EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY: DEFINING
the Problem ........................................... 191

CHARLES H. THOMPSON, Professor of Education and Dean Emeritus,
The Graduate School, Howard University

II THE LAW AND RACIAL EQUALITY IN EDUCATION ................. 204

ROBERT L. CARTER, General Counsel, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People

III PROGRESS TOWARD EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY IN ELEMENTARY and Secondary Education .......................... 212

EARLE H. WEST, Associate Professor of Education, Howard University

IV NEW PERSPECTIVES IN SCHOOL-COMMUNITY RELATIONSHIPS ...... 220

CHARLES V. WILLIE, Chairman, Department of Sociology, Syracuse
University

Section 2. The Assessment of Negro Capacity and Achievement

V NEGRO-WHITE DIFFERENCES IN EMPLOYABILITY, SELF-CONCEPT, AND RELATED MEASURES AMONG ADOLESCENTS CLASSIFIED AS MENTALLY HANDICAPPED ................................ 227

LEE S. SHULMAN, Professor of Educational Psychology and Medical Education, Michigan State University

VI NEGRO YOUTH AND PSYCHOLOGICAL MOTIVATION ............... 241

ALVIN F. POUSSAINT, Assistant Professor of Psychiatry, Tufts University School of Medicine, and CAROLYN O. ATKINSON, Doctoral Candidate in Sociology, Harvard University

VII NONINTELLIGENCE Correlates of Academic Achievement ....... 252

HOWARD CAMERON, Associate Professor of Education, Howard University
CHAPTER

VIII THE MEASUREMENT OF INTELLECTUAL CAPACITY AND PERFORMANCE
Winton H. Manning, Executive Director of Research and Development, College Entrance Examination Board

Section 3. Programs for the Improvement of Public Education

IX COMPENSATORY EDUCATION IN THE EQUALIZATION OF EDUCATIONAL
Opportunity, I .................................................. 268

Edmund W. Gordon, Professor and Chairman, Department of Guidance, and Director of ERIC-IRCD, Teachers College, Columbia University; and AdelaJde Jablonsky, Associate Professor of Education, Ferkauf Graduate School, Yeshiva University and Associate Director for Content, ERIC-IRCD, Teachers College, Columbia University

X COMPENSATORY EDUCATION IN THE EQUALIZATION OF EDUCATIONAL Opportunity, II: An Organizational Model for Compensatory
Education .................................................... 280

Edmund W. Gordon and Adelaide Jablonsky

XI THE BUSING OF STUDENTS FOR EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES .................. 291

Thomas W. Mahan, Director, Project Concern, Hartford, Connecticut, and Director, Institute for Human Development, University of Hartford

XII SCHOOL PARKS FOR EQUAL OPPORTUNITIES .............................. 301

John H. Fischer, President, Teachers College, Columbia University

Section 4. Toward Equal Opportunities in Higher Education

XIII EQUAL OPPORTUNITY IN HIGHER EDUCATION .......................... 310

Francis J. Barros, Assistant Professor of Education, Howard University

XIV A STUDENT'S APPRAISAL OF THE ADEQUACY OF HIGHER EDUCATION
FOR BLACK AMERICANS ........................................ 316

Barbara Penn Stembridge, President, College of Liberal Arts Student Council, 1967-68, Howard University

XV INSTITUTIONAL APPRAISAL AND PLANNING FOR EQUAL EDUCATIONAL Opportunity .................................................... 323

Charles L. Hayes, Chief, Developing Institutions Branch, Division of College Support, Bureau of Higher Education, U.S. Office of Education
Section 5. Summary and Evaluation

XVI Equal Educational Opportunity: Some Findings and Conclusions ............................................................... 330
Paul Phillips Cooke, President, District of Columbia Teachers College

XVII Summary and Evaluation of Contributions to the Yearbook: Race and Equality in American Education ................. 340
Henry S. Dyer, Vice President, Educational Testing Service