

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Editorial Comment: Implementing Multiculturalism—The Challenge to Educators in the International Year of the Child	233
In Memoriam: To Su-Lin and Mai-Lin in Remembrance of Their Father, Charles W. Cheng, 1937-1979	235
Chapter
Part 1: Policy Issues and Trends
I Shaping the Future of Multicultural Education James A. Banks	237
II Policy Issues in Multicultural Education in the United States Gwendolyn C. Baker	253
III What is “An Equal Chance” for Minority Children? Charles W. Cheng, Emily Brizendine and Jeannie Oakes	267
Part 2: Review of Research
IV Revelations, Responses, Refinement—An Overview of the Research Pertaining to the Young Child, 1960-79 Vernon L. Clark	288
V Recent Cross-Ethnic Research on the Adolescent Sandra N. Smith	306
Part 3: Curriculum and Schooling
VI On Behalf of Children: A Curriculum Design for Multicultural Education in the Elementary School Geneva Gay	324
VII The Four M Curriculum: A Way to Shape the Future Barbara A. Sizemore	341
VIII Models for the Educational Needs of Gifted Children in a Multicultural Context Robert E. Clasen	357
IX Mainstreaming: Implementing the Spirit of the Law Mara Sapon-Shevin	364
X Multicultural Analysis of a Popular Basal Reading Series in the International Year of the Child Robin A. Butterfield, Elene S. Demos, Gloria W. Grant, Peter S. Moy, and Anna L. Perez	382

XI	Integrating Multiculturalism into a Teacher Training Program . . .	390
	Ella M. Bowen and Fredrick L. Salsman
Part 4: Problem Areas Affecting Children
XII	Children in Crisis in the United States: Child Abuse and Neglect—A Continuing Problem	396
	Henry E. Hankerson
XIII	Some Aspects of Childrearing Practices in Three Minority Subcultures in the United States	408
	Herma B. Williams and Eric Williams
Part 5: Directions for Change
XIV	Developing a Culturally Pluralistic Perspective: A Community Involvement Task	419
	Willie J. Barnes
XV	Education That Is Multicultural as a Change Agent: Organizing for Effectiveness	431
	Carl A. Grant

ACKNOWLEDGMENT

Appreciation is expressed to Carl A. Grant, University of Wisconsin-Madison, for his role in the conceptualization and preparation of this issue of the JOURNAL OF NEGRO EDUCATION, and to the Teacher Corps for its generous support of this project. Dr. Grant also served as guest editor. Such commitment and support are encouraging signs of the willingness of individuals and organizations to work together to achieve important goals.

Some of the articles included in this issue of the JOURNAL were developed from activity which was supported in part by the Office of Education, U.S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare. However, the opinions expressed in the articles do not necessarily reflect the position or policy of the Office of Education, and no official endorsement by that office should be inferred.