Table of Contents

Special Focus: Racial Ideology and Gender Contextual Issues

Guest Editorial: God’s Gon’ Trouble the Water: An African American Academic’s Retrospective on Hurricane Katrina .................................................. 573
  Fred Arthur Bonner II

Special-Focus Articles

- The Legitimization of Black Subordination: The Impact of Color-Blind Ideology on African American Education ................................................................. 579
  Dawn G. Williams and Roderic R. Land

- Racial Ideology and Affirmative Action Support in a Diverse College Student Population ................................................................. 589
  William A. Smith

- What It Means To Become Somebody: The Power of Perception and Girls’ Educational Choices in Benin, Africa .......................................................... 606
  Sessi S. F. Aboh

- Dr. Anna Julia Cooper, 1858-1964: Teacher, Scholar, and Timeless Womanist ................................................................. 621
  Mark S. Giles

General Articles

- Strategies for Teaching African American History: Musings From the Past, Ruminations for the Future ................................................................. 635
  Pero G. Dagbovie

- Ebony Jr.!: The Rise and Demise of an African American Children’s Magazine ................................. 649
  Laretta Henderson

- Using Storytelling to Break the Silence That Binds Us to Sameness in Our Schools ................................................................. 661
  Loyce Caruthers

Book/Media Reviews

- Supplementary Education: The Hidden Curriculum of High Academic Achievement, edited by Edmund W. Gordon, Beatrice L. Bridglall, and Aundra Saa Meroe ................................................................. 676
  (Velma LaPoint)

- High Stakes Education: Inequality, Globalization, and Urban School Reform, by Pauline Lipman ................................................................. 678
  (Deryl Davis Fulmer)

- BLACK POWER: Radical Politics and African American Identity, by Jeffrey O. G. Ogbar ................................................................. 679
  (F. Carl Walton)
Friendship, Cliques and Gangs: Young Black Men Coming of Age in Urban America, by Greg Dimitriadis........................................................................................................681
(Hermoine M. Hamlin)

The Road to Wisdom, Plain and Simple: Shaping Intelligence—Black Style, by Searetha Smith-Collins..........................................................................................683
(Frederick D. Harper)

Cover: “Captive Audience” by Melinda Byers. Copyright © 2006 by Melinda Byers. For more information, please visit her Website: www.mbyers.com.