Table of Contents
Celebrating 75 Years of Publishing

Editor’s Comment
Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.: Remembering After Forty Years ................................................................. 1
   Frederick D. Harper

Racial Identity and Black Students’ Perceptions of Community Outreach: Implications for Bonding
   Social Capital .............................................................................................................................................. 3
   Joe L. Lott II

Contextualizing Race: African American College Choice in an Evolving Affirmative Action Era ............. 15
   Robert T. Teranishi and Kamilah Briscoe

Enhancing Cultural Competence Among Teachers of African American Children Using
   Mediated Lesson Study .............................................................................................................................. 27
   Cirecie A. West-Olatunji, Linda Behar-Horenstein, Jeffrey Rant, and Lakechia Cohen-Phillips

African Americans’ Access to Vocational Rehabilitation Services After Antidiscrimination
   Legislation ................................................................................................................................................. 39
   Ari K. Mwachofi

Racial and Ethnic-Related Stressors as Predictors of Perceived Stress and Academic Performance for African American Students at a Historically Black College and University ........................................... 60
   Tawanda M. Greer

Testing Minority Teachers: Law and Out of Order .................................................................................... 72
   Joy M. Barnes-Johnson

Book/Media Reviews
Journey to the Ph.D.: How to Navigate the Process as African Americans, by Anna L. Green and Lekita V. Scott ........................................................................................................................................ 82
   (Mildred N. Nti)

From Black Power to Hip Hop: Racism, Nationalism, and Feminism by Patricia Hill Collins ................. 83
   (Lesley Feracho)

Getting Choice Right: Ensuring Equity and Efficiency in Education Policy, by Julian R. Betts and
   Tom Loveless ........................................................................................................................................ 85
   (Shawgi Tell)

Subscribers: Please note change in our subscription policy on the following page. This policy supersedes the one printed in the Fall 2007 issue.